DIGITAL SHELF DOMINANCE

Zest - Bio steals customers

THE CHALLENGER STRATEGY

- ✓ GLP-1 FRIENDLY MESSAGING
- ✓ HEALTH FORWARD FUNCTIONAL BENEFITS
- ✓ SUSTAINABLE PACKAGING
- ✓ DIGITAL FIRST PRESENCE

DIAGNOSTIC FRAMEWORK

- ✓ ANALYSIS: WHO IS CHURNING?
- ✓ CONTEXT: WHERE ARE THEY GOING?
- ✓ ROOT CAUSE: WHY ARE THEY SWITCHING?
- ✓ ACTION: WHAT DOES THIS MEAN STRATEGICALLY?

Without diagnosing the root cause, any strategic response risks misallocating resources and accelerating brand erosion.

Private Labels gain

💡 Pack-size inefficiencies

⚠️ KEY FINDING: Premium/health segments → Zest-Bio (functional switch) | Value segments → Private Labels (price switch)

TWO DIFFERENT PROBLEMS

Not One Crisis — Two Independent Consumer Trends

1

Health-Conscious Consumers Switching to Zest-Bio

WHO

Millennials, high-loyalty, premium buyers, health-focused

WHY THEY'RE LEAVING

Want functional benefits, GLP-1 compatibility, sustainability — NOT cheaper price

BUSINESS IMPACT

Losing future profit pools & brand relevance in wellness category

This is a POSITIONING problem

2

Price-Sensitive Shoppers Moving to Private Labels

WHO

Gen-X, value seekers, budget-conscious, price-sensitive

WHY THEY'RE LEAVING

Pure price pressure — pack sizes don't match needs, promos ineffective

BUSINESS IMPACT

Losing volume share but lower long-term profit impact

This is a PRICING problem

Different problems need different solutions: Problem 1 needs INNOVATION, Problem 2 needs PRICE OPTIMIZATION

GEN-Z PACK SIZE BEHAVIOR

Current Pack Architecture Doesn't Match Gen-Z Purchase Patterns

EFFERVESCE PACK OPTIONS:

REGULAR PACK

Lower price, smaller size

THE MISSING OPTION — MID-SIZE PACK:

Effervesce lacks a mid-size pack aligned with Gen-Z buying habits, limiting small-household reach, repeat purchases, and competitiveness against flexible pack options.

LARGE PACK

Higher price, bigger size

THE GEN-Z PROBLEM:

KEY DATA FINDING:

Gen-Z Large Pack Share: 8.7%

Market Average: 40.6%

→ Gen-Z is 79% BELOW market for large packs

WHAT THIS MEANS:

- Gen-Z consumers AVOID large pack sizes
- Single-person & small households can't commit
- No mid-size option for their needs
- Preference for smaller, more frequent purchases

Pack Size Share (%) by Age Group

Pack_Size	Large	Regular
Age_Group
Gen-Z	8.7	91.3
Millennial	59.4	40.6
Gen-X	51.6	48.4
Boomer+	52.0	48.0

GEN-Z BEHAVIOR

Prefer Regular packs
8.7% adopt Large packs

≠

MARKET AVERAGE

40.6% buy Large packs
Family/multi-person focus

SOLUTION NEEDED: Introduce mid-size pack to capture Gen-Z/small household segment currently underserved

PROMOTIONAL MISALIGNMENT

We are shouting where Gen-Z isn't listening

THE DISCONNECT

✓ RETAILER APP ENGAGEMENT:
8-12% (ABYSMAL)

✓ SOCIAL INFLUENCER:
5-8% (BARELY REGISTERS)

COMBINED DIGITAL SHARE: <15%
Meanwhile, 80%+ of Gen-Z discover brands on social

WHY THIS MATTERS

✓ WRONG CHANNELS

Investing in Retail Media Networks (Walmart Connect) that Gen-Z actively avoids

✓ WRONG MESSAGE

BOGO/displays drive 60-70% of purchases but train Gen-Z to wait for discounts, not love Effervesce

✓ COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE

Zest-Bio uses micro-influencers (10K-100K followers) at 1/10th the cost, driving 3x Gen-Z engagement

Promotion Share (%) by Age Group:

Promo_Type	BOGO	Coupon	Retailer_App	Social_Influencer	Unknown
Age_Group
Gen-Z	87.3	3.2	2.9	3.2	3.3
Millennial	20.9	22.0	20.8	17.1	19.2
Gen-X	85.9	3.8	3.4	3.5	3.4
Boomer+	25.0	20.6	14.3	20.8	19.3

STRATEGIC CHOICE AND RECOMMENDATION

The Strategic Fork in the Road

Option A: Retro-Premiumization

Appeal to nostalgia, heritage, vintage aesthetic

Option B: Functional Line Extension

Launch wellness-focused, benefit-driven innovation

WHY FUNCTIONAL WINS

- ✓ TARGETS THE RIGHT ENEMY:
Competes directly with Zest-Bio
- ✓ FIGHTS THE RIGHT BATTLE:
Premium functional ($3.49), not value nostalgia
- ✓ WINS BACK THE RIGHT CUSTOMERS:
Health-conscious Millennials with high loyalty

PRODUCT BLUEPRINT

- ✓ ELECTROLYTE-ENHANCED HYDRATION
- ✓ VITAMIN-FORTIFIED (B-COMPLEX, C)
- ✓ ADAPTOGEN-INFUSED WELLNESS
- ✓ ZERO SUGAR, ORGANIC CERTIFIED
- ✓ GLP-1 FRIENDLY (EXPLICIT CLAIM)

OUR RECOMMENDATION: Launch "Effervesce THRIVE"

THANK YOU
